

Kodak Scan Station 500 vs. Canon ScanFront 220 Scanner

Kodak Scan Station 500

Canon ScanFront 220 Scanner

Top 5 Reasons to Select Kodak

1. Proven throughput speed

- The Kodak Scan Station 500 is more than 9X faster in 200 dpi color duplex!

2. "Voice Attachment" feature, another Kodak exclusive

- Send audio messages along with your scanned images, adding personalized comments with ease

3. Supports all "scan-to" destinations—simultaneously!

- Send to multiple destinations (e-mail, printer, fax, FTP and USB drive) with a single scan

4. Robust design for exceptional paper handling!

- ADF holds up to 75 pages (20 lb. paper)
- Handles mixed-document batches with ease
- Embossed cards are no problem
- Securely scans over 1,500 pages a day

5. Optional accessories support the way you do business

- Kodak A3 and A4 Flatbed and Keyboard Accessories available

See reverse to learn more

Top 5 Reasons NOT to Choose Canon

1. Compare actual scanning throughput speed

Scanner	Actual Speed (200 dpi color duplex)
Kodak Scan Station 500	30.3 pages per minute*
Canon ScanFront 220 Scanner	3.2 pages per minute*

* Transport speed test settings: 200 dpi, color, duplex, PDF format.

2. With the Canon ScanFront 220 Scanner, you must physically type any accompanying messages

- No ability to send an audio message attachment

3. Limited "scan to" destinations

- No scan-to-print, no scan-to-fax

4. Fragile construction, with paper handling limitations

- At just 3.4 kg. (7.5 lb.), its plastic construction cannot compare to the Scan Station's durability
- ADF capacity is just 50 sheets (20 lb. paper)
- Recommended daily usage is only 1,000 pages

5. "No options" is your only option

- Does not offer A3 or A4 flatbed scanner or tactile keyboard accessories

Compare all the advantages Kodak delivers, to everything that Canon asks you to overlook, and there's really only one choice: the Kodak Scan Station 500.

The Kodak logo is displayed in a bold, red, sans-serif font. It is positioned in the lower right quadrant of the page, with a large, stylized yellow arrow pointing towards it from the bottom right corner.

To learn more:
www.kodak.com/go/getyourScanStation

Printed using Kodak Technologies.